

*Our dear brother, now that you are gone,
You're no longer here to share the bond we had together.
A bond of love and care
Yet, somehow something tells us you are watching over us.
You are finally free.
We miss you so very much, and tears we cannot hide.
Yet within our hearts, we feel you are always by our side.
Ever since you went away,
Life hasn't been the same.
Yet it comforts us to know we'll meet again!*

Your Loving Sisters

The Obituary

Thomas Lamont Hardy was born September 13, 1993, in Brooklyn, New York. Thomas was the only son of Joyce and Lieutenant Hardy, but he has four beautiful sisters, whom he loved. He was affectionately referred to as “Tommy” by friends, co-workers and acquaintances.

Thomas was happy, adventurous and willing to help anyone who needed it. Thomas attended Elementary school P.S. 15, Middle School I.S. 59 and High School Pathways. He went on to attend Queens Borough Community College in 2011.

Thomas started working and saving his money at the early age of 16. Thomas worked at Grady’s, Bud’s Sports Bar, Miller’s Ale House, Hooters, LaGuardia Airport ‘s Restaurant - Fusco and then for New York City Transit Authority as an MTA Bus Operator for the past two years.

How did Thomas love? The answer is he loved hard. Thomas poured his heart and soul into his work and was admired by all. There truly wasn’t anything that he couldn’t do, he was a perfectionist. Tommy had to prove to himself he could do anything. Anyone that truly knew Tommy, knew he had the biggest heart. He’d do and give anything to anyone. He could make you laugh even when you were mad at him. He always made people around him feel important and special as well. He showed up when it mattered, had your back, and would defend his loved ones. He kept us safe. Thomas always had a smile that was captivating. Everyone knew his favorite color was Red, and he wore it well. His love for dressing and being dapper matched his personality. He loved sports; basketball was his favorite of all. He had a passion for riding motorcycle. His love for life was immeasurable.

On June 1st, life changed for us all.

Thomas is survived by his parents Joyce and Lieutenant Hardy, four older sisters: Arenthia Scott, Shatisha Hardy, Laverne Hardy-Morawski (Brenden Morawski) and Jasmine Hardy. Seven nieces; La’Toya and Yolanda Bradford, Tianna, Taliyah, Tayla Johnson, Nylah Crump, and Harlow Morawski. Three nephews; Aaron Bradford, Jordan Holloway and Tyriq Johnson. Seven aunts; Zondra Gilliam, Ophelia Crittenden, Debra Bradford, Alicia Brown AKA Lisa, Kathy Rentas, Charlyane Gaines, and Monique Carter. Four uncles; Elliot Hardy, JB Bradford, Michael Brewer, and James Gilliam. As well as his extended family; Deidre and Marek Shaw – Morawski. Two God sisters Joi Brown and Brandie Baptiste. Also a God brother Johnnie Bradford. And the love of his life Liz Rodriguez.

Thomas leaves an abundance of cousins & friends that he truly loved: Cousins Elisha, Renata, and James Gilliam. His closest friends; Snoopy, Kenny, Justin, Lulu, Craig, Keisha, Joe, Chris, Aaron, Steve, Zee, Alicia and Millie.

All Angels shall spread their wings; Thomas (Tommy) has been granted a first-class seat to meet the Master. He has now earned his wings. May he Rest in Peace.

Lovingly Submitted

*The Measure Of A Man
A Tribute To Our Son*

Not – How did he die? But- How did he live?

Not- What did he gain? But – What did he give?

These are the things that measure the worth of a man , as a man regardless of birth

Not – What was his station? But – Had he a heart?

And – How did he play his God-given part?

Was he ever ready with a word of good cheer?

To bring back a smile, to banish a tear?

Not – what was his church?

Not – what was his creed?

But – Had he befriended those really in need?

Not – What did the sketch in the newspaper say?

But – How many were sorry when he passed away?

These are the things that measure the worth of a man, as a man regardless of birth.
